Hi team,

Thank you for the reply, good work. Let me know if you need any help from my side and keep me updated.

Have a good weekend.

Cheers

Jiefei

Hi Jiefei,

Sorry for the late reply.

You can find what we discussed from yesterday's minutes (attached document).

For this weekend, our group will be making a Technical Performance Measurement and a functional analysis according to the research that Andre already did. We will start sketching next week before building the 3D model in Solidworks.

Regards,

Insect Farming Team
